Albuquerque Christian Children's Home

Albuquerque Christian Children's Home provides long-term foster care for children whose parent(s) cannot provide such care because the parent(s) are homeless, indigent, addicts, in prison, or too ill to care for their child. We will feed, clothe, house, educate, and counsel these children as long as they need our help. Depending on the family situation, each child may stay with us for as little as a few months, or until he/she becomes an adult and is able to become a productive part of the community. Since most of the children who come to us have some degree of neglect or abuse in their past, we provide tutoring and counseling to assist them in overcoming their individual issues

Parent Organization

Albuquerque Christian Children's Home

Albuquerque Christian Children's Home is a non-profit organization dedicated to providing the very best physical, psychological and spiritual foster care for school aged children who have been neglected, abused, or in need of supervision. We care for these children without regard for their race, religion, culture, national origin, financial status or social status. ACCH operates 100% off donations accepting no state or federal funding! On any given day in New Mexico nearly 2,500 children need short or long term foster care. (CYFD NM). The Albuquerque Christian Children's Home, helps fill that need.
