Albuquerque Museum Foundation

The Albuquerque Museum Foundation provides direct support for:

- The Museum School-a year round art education program for youth and families
- The Magic Bus-free educational tours of the Museum and Casa San Ysidro in Corrales for approximately 8,500 school students and teachers each year
- Educational programs for at risk and homeless students and youths in the community which includes an annual career fair for homeless high school junior and senior students
- Public programs-especially exhibit related lectures, symposia and professional development workshops for teachers
- Docent training and Museum staff development
- Acquisitions for the Museum's permanent art and history collections
- Special traveling exhibitions which bring high quality works from around the nation and the world to our community, enabling New Mexicans to have access to artistic and cultural experiences usually only available in major cities. These include the acclaimed "Killer Heels" and highly anticipated exhibits such as "When Modern was Contemporary: Selections from the Roy R. Neuberger Collection opening September 2017 and "Treasures from the Hispanic Society of America" opening November 2018
- Other art and history exhibitions which bring select art, artifacts and educational experiences to Albuquerque
- Two friend/fundraisers each year: artsthrive art exhibition and benefit in the fall and Shaken, Not Stirred a high-end cocktail party and raffle of a trip. Event is focused on young professionals with philanthropic goals and community interests
