Parent Organization

Alzheimer's Association, NM Chapter

In New Mexico, more than 46,000 people are living with Alzheimer’s while 67,000 caregivers provide 118,000,000 hours of unpaid care annually. From corner to corner, mountains to high desert, and everywhere in between, your New Mexico chapter of the Alzheimer’s Association is here to help.

Whether it’s offering support to anyone facing Alzheimer’s, advocating for the needs and rights of those facing dementia, or advancing critical research, we work toward methods of treatment, prevention and, ultimately, a cure.
