WALK to End Alzheimer's

The WALK to End Alzheimer's happens throughout New Mexico. WALK gathers those communities together with local business and the healthcare industries to raise awareness to End Alzheimer's disease. There is no registration fee for this event. The WALK to End Alzheimer's is a public website which runs for a full calendar year to raise awareness, funds, support and research for all in New Mexico. Participating in WALK is the one day a year for our community businesses, healthcare providers and citizens to say "thank you, we support, we honor and want to find a Cure to End Alzheimer's by HOPING for the first survivor of Alzheimer's disease."

The WALK to End Alzheimer's events in New Mexico are located in: Albuquerque, FArmington, Las Cruces, Roswell, and Santa Fe.

Visit the website to find a walk.

Parent Organization

Alzheimer's Association, NM Chapter

In New Mexico, more than 46,000 people are living with Alzheimer’s while 67,000 caregivers provide 118,000,000 hours of unpaid care annually. From corner to corner, mountains to high desert, and everywhere in between, your New Mexico chapter of the Alzheimer’s Association is here to help.

Whether it’s offering support to anyone facing Alzheimer’s, advocating for the needs and rights of those facing dementia, or advancing critical research, we work toward methods of treatment, prevention and, ultimately, a cure.
