Assistance League of Albuquerque

Operation School Bell provides uniform clothing for schoolchildren in need through referrals from principals, counselors and social workers in the local school district. Three complete sets of uniforms, socks and new shoes are provided.

Buddy Bear Patrol, through Albuquerque Police and Fire Departments, provides new teddy bears to children in times of crisis.

Tender Loving Care furnishes handmade layettes and knitted chemo caps to UNM Hospital.

Blue Portal in Old Town is where seniors bring their handcrafted items for sale.

Kids on the Block is a national program. In cooperation with the local school district, performances are given by trained members using life-sized puppets. Messages concerning social issues are presented (bullying, safety, stranger danger, and peer pressure).

Kids are Pretty Special works directly with The Bernalillo County Office of Children Youth & Families to provide clothing, hygiene products, toys, juice and snacks for their clients.

Assault Survivor Kit works with Sexual Assault Nurse Examiners to provide clothing and hygiene kits for assault victims.
