Help with Property Taxes

Several programs are offered by the Assessor's Office to reduce homeowners' property taxes. See <https://www.bernco.gov/assessor/exemptions-applications-other.aspx> to download these applications:

- 1) Head of Family Exemption. Apply for $2,000 reduction in taxable value of property.
- 2) Value Freeze Program. The property owner must have a modified gross income of $32,000 or less during the previous tax year, and be 65 years of age or over; or disabled. If eligible, the taxable value of property will not be increased. After applying 3 years, the value freeze is permanent.
- 3) Veterans Tax Exemption or 100% Disabled Veteran Tax Waiver Exemption. $4,000 reduction in taxable value of property if a veteran who is not disabled or is less than 100% disabled; total waiver of property taxes for veterans who are 100% disabled.

Veteran Outreach at the Assessor's Office the 3rd Thursday of the month from 10:00 am to 1:00 pm. Currently serving military personnel also may be eligible for tax exemption and can call the Assessor's Office for more information.
