Parent Organization

Bosque Farms Rodeo Association

BFRA is dedicated to the preservation and continuity of the rural equestrian lifestyle through equine and community based education, and youth oriented activities and services beneficial to the community and public interest.

BFRA sponsors educational seminars, recreational events, and community activities benefiting the rural and agricultural heritage of the Village of Bosque Farms and the surrounding area. Youth outreach activities include junior rodeo events, adult supervised youth dances, 4H activities, and equine-related training activities provided to teach young people leadership, responsibility, and life skills.
