Cariño Toy Lending & Resource Library

The library offers thousands of educational toys, games, materials, videos, books and other resources for check out at no cost, primarily for early childhood educators and families who have young children. Providers can borrow educational toys for children at no cost. The library is also available for clients and families who don't have the funds to access high-quality early childhood educational materials, making it easier to foster developmental needs as children grow. There will be planned story times, art activities and identified play space will be available for children while providers and parents browse through the library without interruption.
