Casa de Mariposa

Casa expects to provide help and hope in the form of four fundamental services in order to achieve the outcome described in its mission. Those services include:

1. Residential Housing provides safety, security, stability and the opportunity to build familial/community relationships with others.
2. Bible-based Discipleship encourages learning to know and build a spiritual relationship with God through faith in Jesus Christ.
3. Life Skill Program offers specific services in the areas of mental, physical and emotional well-being through various agencies and individual resources, as well as, the health of the mother and unborn child.
4. Employment and, or Education Pursuit through planning, preparation, job searches and coaching.
