

SHARE new mexico™

New Mexico Allied Council on Tobacco

The New Mexico Allied Council on Tobacco is a workgroup of the Chronic Disease Prevention Council whose mission is to advocate for proven tobacco use prevention policies through statewide partnerships to reduce disease and death from commercial tobacco abuse.

Details

Ages: All ages

Races: All

Genders: All

Intake Process: Online Application

Payment Options: Free

Special Needs: Behavioral health or substance abuse

Waiting List: Never

Minimum Age: NA

Maximum Age: NA

Contact: Suzanne Lawson

Contact Email: suzanne@chronicdiseasenm.org

Capacity: Albuquerque

Services

Public Health

Locations

New Mexico

PO Box 3511

Albuquerque, NM 87190

Mailing:

Laurel@chronicdiseasenm.org

Albuquerque, NM 87190

Phone: (505) 463-5300

Languages Spoken: English

Services Limited By Geography: No

Parent Organization

Chronic Disease Prevention Council of New Mexico

The Chronic Disease Prevention Council of New Mexico creates a forum for collaboration and communication to break down disease specific silos and focus on prevention and control issues for chronic diseases, including arthritis, cancer, diabetes, heart disease, stroke, and diseases related to obesity and tobacco use.

.
Albuquerque, NM 87102

Mailing:

PO Box 3511

Albuquerque, NM 87190

Phone: (505) 463-5300

Primary Contact: Laurel McCloskey

Contact Email: laurel@chronicdiseasenm.org

Type: Nonprofit

EIN: 46-4215344

<http://www.chronicdiseasenm.org>