

Circle of Life Family Services

Circle of Life Family Services provides individual and family counseling for Native American children, adolescents and adults covered by Medicaid. Typical referrals are made because of mental health, domestic violence, behavioral, and other family or individual concerns. Counseling services are provided in the community (e.g. schools, homes) or in the clinic.

Some of the services offered through Family Services include:

- Individualized Assessment/Evaluation
- Individualized Treatment Planning
- Family Counseling
- Individual and Group Therapy
- Trauma Counseling
- EMDR
- Parenting Education
- Art and Play Therapy
- Case Management to assist in coordination of services
- In-home, community based, school, and office visits as appropriate
