CityServe of the Tri-Valley Crisis Stabilization

CityServe requests funds to continue our highest priority of bringing sustainable stability to the most vulnerable families in the Tri-Valley area as the need has grown due to the increased cost of housing in the Tri-Valley and the number of people served has grown. Our limited funds do not cover the number of hotel nights, rent assistance, food and other services needed to bring stability to those requiring services.

CityServe of the Tri-Valley is a crisis-stabilization direct-service non-profit that values creative solutions, quick responsiveness, and above all else, compassionate care for those in need here in our Tri-Valley communities.

Our vision is to mobilize mercy and compassion through case management and community volunteers. This mobilization is designed to humanize human services as our staff and volunteers walk alongside those most in need, and provide creative, client-centered care that helps Tri-Valley residents move towards a future of stability, self-efficacy, and sustainability.

CityServe fosters community collaboration by coordinating resources and establishing solution-focused partnerships between CityServe and faith-based communities, other non-profits, local businesses, school districts, government agencies, and by connecting volunteers to other service opportunities.
