CNM Volunteer Tutor Program

Volunteer tutors act as one-on-one mentors in English as a Second language, Basic Literacy, Math, and Sciences. Volunteers provide beginning literacy through college level assistance at five of our campuses (Main, Montoya, South Valley, Westside, and Rio Rancho) and meet with students 1-2 hours per week. The CNM Volunteer Tutor Program is committed to student-centered tutoring. Volunteers and learners work as a team to establish and meet student goals and objectives. Volunteer tutors are not expected to be professional teachers; they are coaches who observe, advise, and offer strategies for learning. Learners are guided by the volunteer in assessing and monitoring their progress.
