Native Youth Initiatives

Our Native youth initiatives are youth-focused and designed to cultivate positive social responses while at the same time helping our Native youth to identify and support healthy avenues toward decision making and community involvement. By building awareness about violence in our Tribal communities, we are creating innovative and strategic approaches that work toward social change and mobilizing community-driven solutions and ensuring that the youth voice is at the table. The initiatives that we work to bring to our Native youth include the following:

- Native Youth Summit
- Social Media Presence
- Indigenous Focused Memes
- Presentations
- Indigenous Youth Blogs
- Young Indigenous Femmes Retreat
