Integrated Services for Immigrant Families (ISIF)

The ISIF program consists of 3 components: direct, legal immigration services, citizenship preparation classes, and the Promotoras de Apoyo Familiar (PAF) program. The ISIF Legal Immigration Office provides services that allow immigrant families to apply for legal permanent residency, renewal of work permits, naturalization, and many other legal immigration services. Parent Organization

Colonias Development Council (CDC)

The mission of the Colonias Development Council (CDC) is to improve the quality of life through the promotion, development and preservation of decent and affordable housing in colonia communities in southern New Mexico while creating the space for social, economic, and environmental justice initiatives. The CDC was established to provide leadership, advocacy, and organizing support, through civic engagement activities for colonia residents, most of which are families of immigrants of mixed status.
