Food Pantry

UPDATE 3/31/20: Due to the safety concerns regarding COVID-19, the Health and Social Services Centers will no longer be taking walk-ins for services. Please call your nearest location for further details on how to access services.

Call if you are not certain that you reside in the geographical area eligible for a food box here. You may present a referral from a case manager if you are a homeless family. Bring proof of each family member in the household. Proof of address can be your residential lease or rental agreement, a gas bill, or a piece of mail dated in the last 30 days. Food supplied by Roadrunner Food Bank.

Parent Organization

East Central Health and Social Services Center

The City of Albuquerque Department of Family and Community Services has 4 Health and Social Services Centers: Alamosa, East Central, John Marshall, and Los Griegos—one located in each quadrant of the city. These centers provide, as a community focal point, services to meet the health, education, and social service needs of the community. Each center has a defined geographical boundary for provision of services.
