Food Distribution Program

A federal program that provides USDA foods (commodity foods) to low-income American Indian and Non-Indian households residing on a reservation and to households living in approved areas near a reservation that contain at least one person who is a member of a federally-recognized tribe. The areas served by the ENIPC Food Distribution Program are Nambe, Pojoaque, Tesuque, San Ildefonso, Santa Clara, Ohkay Owingeh, Taos and Picuris Pueblos. In addition we also service the Taos County and Penasco areas. See website for information about applying for this program and for a link to USDA recipes, preparation tips; nutrition and safe food storage info: <http://fooddistribution.snappages.com/>

Parent Organization

Eight Northern Indian Pueblos Council, Inc. (ENIPC)

ENIPC, Inc. was incorporated as New Mexico nonprofit organization in 1962. Since that time, the tribal Governors have met on a monthly basis to discuss common issues, which directly affect their centurie-old communities. For over nearly 40 years, ENIPC, Inc. has served men, women and children in these Pueblos and other constituents, by offering a broad variety of economic, educational and social service programs. They are designed to meet their unique needs.
