

SHARE new mexico™

Eve's Fund for Native American Health Initiatives

ThinkFirst Navajo: offers free injury prevention education presentations to K-high school students. Magic Tree House Teaching Bookshelves: We donate well-known and loved children's books, the Magic Tree House series, to improve literacy and a love of reading in elementary schools across the Navajo Nation. Eve's Fund Boy Scout Troop provides youth development, leadership and physical fitness for Navajo boys. We also support other existing youth programs, including Native H.O.P.E. (a suicide prevention program for Native youth) and Navajo YES, which includes the annual Tour De Rez.

---

Details

---

Services

Educational Programs   Crisis Intervention   Leisure/Recreation/Sports   Youth Development   Health Support/Education/Insurance

---

Locations

*6300 High Point Drive
Farmington, NM 87402*

Phone: 800-646-2952

---

Parent Organization

Eve's Fund for Native American Health Initiatives

Eve's Fund promotes literacy, mental health, injury prevention and leadership programs for young Native Americans, primarily in the Four Corners area of the American southwest.

*6300 High Point Drive
Farmington, NM 87402*

Phone: (800) 646-2952

Type: Nonprofit

<http://evecrowellsfund.org>