Family Promise of Albuquerque

Family Promise of Albuquerque has a unique and non-traditional solution to the problem of family and child homelessness. Family Promise of Albuquerque is one of over 200 affiliates of a national organization that has been operating for over 25 years with incredible successes of assisting families sustain independence with a community based response. Family Promise of Albuquerque has 3 inter-dependent components that build community and address and solve the problem of family homelessness one family at a time. The 3 components are a 60-90 day shelter, a day center, and a minimum of 18 months of follow-up services. These 3 components help to build a community of support for and with the clients of Family Promise of Albuquerque, with each one strengthening the other.
