Four Corners Home for Children

The Four Corners Home for Children operates three programs on our beautiful 16-acre campus in Farmington, New Mexico. Those programs include the House of Faith, a long-term children's home, the House of Hope, a short-term children's home, Four Corners Families for mothers and children, Four Corners Academy for Excellence and Navajo Nation Outreach. Thank you for visiting us on the Web! You are welcome to stop in for a personal tour if you are in the area, we would love to show you what God is doing here at Four Corners Home for Children!.

Parent Organization

Four Corners Home for Children

Four Corners Home for Children serves people in the Four Corners region of New Mexico, Arizona, Utah, and Colorado. Since 1953, we have helped meet the physical, emotional, educational, and spiritual needs of Navajo children and their families. Our mission as an organization is to help those we serve through programs that instill hope, restoration and Christian values.
