

SHARE new mexico™

Friendship Club

The Friendship Club operates a center that is a home for many 12-step recovery organizations like Alcoholics Anonymous, Overeaters Anonymous and Al-ATeen. Meetings are held seven days a week, and the club also hosts Spanish language-only meetings. The club has a book store and a coffee bar. "We provide a safe place for meetings, activities and events focusing on mental, spiritual and physical recovery. We provide an inviting, supportive environment where people in recovery can heal and help one another." The Friendship Club has over 65 meetings each week with over 250 people seeking recovery from addictions coming through our doors each day, 365 days per year.

Details

Services

Substance Abuse Services Support Groups

Locations

*1316 Apache Avenue
Santa Fe, NM 87505*

Phone: (505) 982-9040

Geographic Area Served: Santa Fe County

Parent Organization

Friendship Club

"The Friendship Club provides and maintains a community center which supports persons in recovery from alcohol, drug, eating, gambling, sex, etc. addictions. We provide a safe place for meetings, activities and events focusing on mental, spiritual and physical recovery. We provide an inviting, supportive environment where people in recovery can heal and help one another." The Friendship Club has over 65 meetings each week with over 250 people seeking recovery from addictions coming through our doors each day, 365 days per year.

*1316 Apache Avenue
Santa Fe, NM 87505*

Phone: (505) 982-9040

Contact Email: info@friendshipclubsantafe.org

Type:

Nonprofit

EIN: 850324089

<http://www.friendshipclubsantafe.org>