Residential recovery for homeless men

The Fresh Start Program is a 6 month men's recovery program for substance abuse. Participants receive shelter and meals, counseling, treatment, regular meetings, and have work duties at the Center. After successful completion, transition services are provided such as help to obtain housing, support services, education enrollment, job seeking, and follow up care. Screening for admittance into the program is conducted every Wednesday morning between 8 and 9am. Applicants must be sober at the time of admission.
