Heading Home Respite Program - AOC Campus

Thirty beds at Heading Home AOC Campus are reserved for men's respite care. Six respite beds for women are managed jointly with, and located at, Barrett House for women. The programs provide a safe place to recover from acute illness or injury. Residents in respite care have access night and day to showers, transportation to medical appointments, three meals a day, clean clothes, linens, basic medical supplies and most importantly, a safe place to recover.
