

SHARE new mexico™

Indigenous Lifeways

Based in New Mexico, we are deeply rooted in the frontlines of activism, engaging with our communities in proactive response to climate adaptation; cultivating green pathways in local economic development; and building individual and community capacity.

Details

Races: Native Americans

Services

Environment & Public Health/Safety Public Health Health Support/Education/Insurance Community Services Community Economic Development Community Action/Social Advocacy Groups

Locations

Indigenous Lifeways

2418 E. Historic Hwy 66
Gallup, NM 87301

Phone: (000) 000-0000

Geographic Area Served: McKinley County

Parent Organization

Indigenous Lifeways, Inc.

To restore the health and balance for all people and our environment by utilizing traditional knowledge and wisdom, respectful land-based practices, ceremonies and a deep understanding of the dynamics and peoples of our communities.

Indigenous Lifeways is working to revitalize and preserve our native languages, traditions and cultures.

Tribal Resource

2418 E. Historic Hwy 66
Gallup, NM 87301

Phone:

(000) 000-0000

Contact Email: krystal@ourindigenouslifeways.org

<http://www.ourindigenouslifeways.org/>