Jewish Community Center of Greater Albuquerque

The JCC of Greater Albuquerque, founded in 2000, is a non-profit organization, open to all regardless of age or religious affiliation. The JCC mission is to enrich our community by practicing the values of Jewish life. The JCC has modern fitness and athletic facilities, outdoor aquatics center, early childhood education center, and day camps on its 7-acre campus. The JCC runs a wide variety of community, educational, recreational and social service programs that serve people of all ages. Programs include: fitness and wellness, personal training, group fitness, specialized fitness classes, aquatics, educational and cultural programs, music, drama and dance performances, summer camp and school break camps, Jewish Care Program (senior programs, social work services, counseling groups, emergency support), after school programs for children, sports/recreation leagues, art classes in art, early childhood development program, and a variety of other programs to assist those in need. JCC also offers its facilities for rental.
