

Job Access - City of Albuquerque

JARC provides low-income individuals with ADA accessible transportation to and from work within the Albuquerque area utilizing public transportation routes that operate on fixed schedules. Must have proof of employment (even part-time/temp) and proof of TANF, SNAP or other proof of being low-income (150% of poverty level or below) -- see website for eligibility. Download Job Access Application (English or Spanish) on website and fax it "Attn: Job Access Program."

Transportation will be provided for:

- Jobs
- Job training
- Child care required for a job and/or job-related training

Transportation will only be provided if:

- bus service is not available,
- if a bus stop is more than ¼ mile away from your home or your destination,
- or it takes 1 ½ hours or more to get to your home or your destination using public transportation.
