

KLab (Keshet's Kinesthetic Education Laboratory): Community Dance & fitness classes; Education and Outreach

Keshet Kinesthetic Education Laboratory (KLab) – cultivates personal growth and technical excellence by mentoring, challenging and empowering students through the experience of dance in an inclusive and nurturing environment.

- Community Dance Classes (Ages 2 through Adult) and Adult Fitness Classes
- PID (Physically Integrated Dance)
- KP3 (Keshet's Pre-Professional Program)
- M3 (Movement + Mentorship = Metamorphosis) pre and post-release program for incarcerated youth
- Title 1/ Homeless Youth Outreach

Community Outreach - Keshet uses dance to improve literacy, math and conflict resolution skills. This unique curriculum combining dance with academics and behavioral development evolved from Keshet's work with incarcerated youth at the New Mexico State Youth Detention Center and at-risk youth.

Studio Classes for youth and adults in a variety of popular dance styles. Over 60% of our students are on some kind of financial aid. No student is ever turned away due to financial hardship.

Pre-Professional Program provides a comprehensive training curriculum for committed young dancers.

Adaptive Dance Programs - Keshet pairs dancers in wheelchairs with able-bodied dancers, which often includes siblings, parents and peers, to create professional quality dance works. As a result, dancers and audience members share in the understanding of unlimited possibilities through the experience of dance.
