Parent Organization

KMRD Inc.

KMRD Inc. is a nonprofit community media organization dedicated to informing, educating, and entertaining the public. Our principles are media access and education, community-building, and independent, hyper-local programming.

Our objectives are:

- Producing high-quality independent freeform programming.
- Providing an alternative to mainstream media and serving our listenership by broadcasting diverse and unique programs of local origin.
- Developing broadcasting skills within our community.

- Supporting and participating in community projects beyond the scope of radio broadcasting.
- Connecting members of the local community, providing a public safety resource.
