Confident Parenting Home Visiting Program

Las Cumbres Confident Parenting Home Visiting, provides information, support, and encouragement through home-based services for families of infants pre-natal to age three. Home visits in Santa Fe and Rio Arriba counties connect families to community resources, explore child development and behavior, and support parent-child interactions to promote physical and mental health, safety, child development, and well-being. For more information about this program, call the Santa Fe office at 505.955.0410 for the main office or Silvia Romero (Program Manager)505.795.4153
