Santa Fe Community Infant Program (CIP)

Infant and Early Childhood Mental Health therapists have received specialized training in trauma-informed, evidence-based therapies for families with children ages prenatal to six. Services provided in Los Alamos, Santa Fe, and Rio Arriba.

Therapists are skilled at working with families who are struggling with multiple stressors and traumatic experiences. Services are designed to strengthen the relationship between the parent and their child as well as minimize the long-term impact of stress and trauma on the child's development and overall well-being.
