

SHARE new mexico™

Luna County Teen Court

The Luna County Teen Court Program is a voluntary program for first time offenders.

Luna County Teen Court provides adolescent participants with the tools and skills to navigate life. These tools include educational classes and service learning projects.

Teen Court meets five days per week for one to two hours per activity. Court is held twice per month.

Teen court includes classes on Life and Social Skills, Alcohol/drug awareness and community service supervision. Teens help organize various community projects and assist community organizations as part of the community service program.

Teens Learn:

- Responsibility
- Judicial Procedures & Knowledge
- Healthy Decision Making
- Self-esteem
- Respect
- Consequences of Negative Behavior
- Critical Thinking
- Healthy Relationships
- How to become responsible community members

Details

Ages: Teen

Intake Process: Appointment Necessary

Services

Courts

Locations

Luna County Courthouse

*700 S. Silver Ave.
Deming, NM 88030*

Phone: (575) 544-7377

Parent Organization

Luna County Teen Court

*700 S. Silver Ave.
Deming, NM 88030*

Phone: (575) 544-7377

Primary Contact: Edith Vazquez

Contact Email: edith_vazquez@lunacountynm.us

Type: Government

<http://www.nmteencourt.com/teen-courts-of-new-mexico.html>