Madrona Institute

Program in Nuclear Disarmament and Non-Proliferation--series of back-channel meetings in Santa Fe convening experts from academia, government and policy making, trying out-of-the-box ideas for getting to the zero option in nuclear weapons. Sacred Diplomacy--Middle East peacemaking through the "back door" in the absence of a formal peace process. Bringing Israeli, Palestinian and other Middle East countries together to share water resources in the region, along with other infrastructure schemes for assuring a future Palestinian state.
