Parent Organization

Manzano HS Ladies Soccer Booster

The Manzano Ladies Soccer Booster Club was formed help support the young lady athletes at Manzano High School by organizing and developing fundraising and event programs, and to foster positive community, family and student involvement both within the team and within the school. These including locating financial assistance in order to compensate for expenses not covered by the Albuquerque Public Schools, funding equipment maintenance, advertising and scholarship funding. The Booster Club also actively supports the team's community outreach through involvement in volunteer activities, organization and operations of the Mini-Monarch Summer Soccer Camp, and the yearly Free "Madness" girls soccer tournaments organized and sponsored by Manzano Girls Soccer for the local community.
