Meal Delivery Program

Meals on Wheels of Albuquerque is the only home delivered meals program in Albuquerque delivering eight medically tailored meal options. We provide a lifeline of nutritional meals, wellness checks, and friendship. We will serve over 173,500 meals to 2,000+ community members in 2023, and operate with zero waitlist. Many community members receiving meals live with chronic health conditions like heart disease, kidney failure, and diabetes, which puts them at even higher risk of severe or fatal COVID-related illness. We offer eight different meal types:

- Regular
- Heart Healthy
- Diabetic
- Renal/Dialysis
- Vegetarian
- Three Textured Options

A dietician reviews our meals to make sure they are in line with the needs of our clients.

Caring individuals deliver meals between 10:30am and 1:30pm, Monday – Friday. The volunteer drops off the meal, provides a friendly face and a wellness check. This provides peace of mind for families and emotional support to the client. We have no age, income, or health requirements to sign up for our home delivered meals program. We offer both long and short term services.
