

SHARE new mexico™

Summer Youth Intern Program + School Curriculum Program

Our Summer Youth Intern Program trains 12 Pueblo and Hispano youth 13-18 in heritage ethics and archaeological recording in northern New Mexico. Our School Curriculum Program trains teachers in implementing our curriculum related to local cultural history and provides docent-led tours of the Wells Petroglyph Preserve.

STEM, Microsoft Access and Geographical Information System (GIS) data entry and management, Geographical Positioning System (GPS) use, digital camera use, metric measuring, archaeological field work, local cultural history, heritage ethics.

Details

Ages: Children and Youth Teen

Services

Schools (K-12) Educational Programs

Locations

*PO Box 407
Velarde, NM 87582*

Phone: 505-852-1351

Parent Organization

Mesa Prieta Petroglyph Project

The Mesa Prieta Petroglyph Project promotes heritage stewardship and the preservation of archaeological features and the environmental and cultural landscape of the Mesa Prieta region of the northern Rio Grande Valley through documentation, education and public outreach.

*1431 Hwy 68
Velarde, NM 87582*

Mailing:
PO Box 407

Phone: (505) 852-1351

Email: admin@mesaprietapetroglyphs.org

Primary Contact:

Jennifer Goyette

EIN: 850464041

<http://mesaprietapetroglyphs.org>