

SHARE new mexico™

Tours of Wells Petroglyph Preserve

The Wells Petroglyph Preserve may be the largest petroglyph site in New Mexico, with rock images dating back to about 7500 years ago. Sign up online at mesaprietapetroglyphs.org to schedule a spot on public, private or school tours. Low impact outrs for less-mobile visitors are available. Fees are on our website.

Details

Ages: Children and Youth Teen Adults Seniors/elderly

Minimum Age: 10 years

Maximum Age: 100 years

Restrictions: Tours limited to age 10 and over

Services

Arts & Culture Educational Support Services Environmental Protection & Improvement
Volunteering Leisure/Recreation/Sports

Locations

*PO Box 407
Velarde, NM 87582*

Phone: 505-852-1351

Parent Organization

Mesa Prieta Petroglyph Project

The Mesa Prieta Petroglyph Project promotes heritage stewardship and the preservation of archaeological features and the environmental and cultural landscape of the Mesa Prieta region of the northern Rio Grande Valley through documentation, education and public outreach.

*1431 Hwy 68
Velarde, NM 87582*

Mailing:
PO Box 407

Phone:

(505) 852-1351

Email: admin@mesaprietapetroglyphs.org

Primary Contact: Jennifer Goyette

EIN: 850464041

<http://mesaprietapetroglyphs.org>