

SHARE new mexico™

Native American Budget and Policy Institute

The NABPI seeks to forge a collaborative pathway to racial equity in New Mexico and across the nation. By working in cooperation with Native American scholars at UNM, graduates of the Pueblo Indian Doctoral Program and tribal elders, the Institute will coordinate research activity across the state to improve public policy decisions at all levels of government through a Native American lens. The Institute will work in cooperation with the Leadership Institute at the Santa Fe Indian School and utilize the resources available at UNM as well as the expertise of the UNM Center for Social Policy and the New Mexico Center on Law and Poverty. It will also engage and mentor young Native American researchers and students in a variety of projects.

Details

Races: Native Americans

Services

Education Community Action/Social Advocacy Groups Research

Locations

Native American Budget and Policy Institute

*1909 Las Lomas NE
Albuquerque, NM 87131*

Phone: (505) 277-0111

Parent Organization

Native American Budget and Policy Institute

The NABPI will conduct research, budget and policy analysis, social justice advocacy, litigation and community lawyering to encourage Native American communities to create self-determined and systematic change.

Tribal Resource

*1909 Las Lomas NE
Albuquerque, NM 87131*

Phone: (505) 277-0111

Contact Email: sanchezg@unm.edu

<http://nabpi.unm.edu/>