

SHARE new mexico™

Navajo United Methodist Center New Beginnings Program

Navajo United Methodist Center is a non-profit agency in Farmington, New Mexico, providing direct services and transitional living shelter for women and their children who are survivors of domestic violence and/or homeless throughout the Four Corners area and the Navajo Nation. The New Beginnings program provides transitional housing with an intense case management support for women and children who are survivors of domestic violence. Women may live up to one year at the shelter, while they prepare for independent living. Transitional Shelter. Family Violence Counseling, Parenting Education. Information and Referral. Transportation

Details

Services

Emergency Shelter Behavioral Health Assessment & Treatment Housing Information Services
Transportation Parenting Education

Locations

*1200 W Apache Building # 17
Farmington, NM 87401*

Phone: 505-325-7578

Parent Organization

Navajo United Methodist Center

Navajo United Methodist Center is a nonprofit agency providing direct services and transitional living shelter for women and their children who are survivors of domestic violence and are homeless throughout the Four Corners area and the Navajo Nation.

*1200 West Apache, Bldg. 17
Farmington, NM 87401*

Phone: 505-325-7578

Email: numcnewbeginnings@gmail.com

Type: Nonprofit

<http://numcnewbeginnings.org>