New Growth Counseling, LLC

New Growth Counseling has a core practice that will focus on providing individual therapy. Individual therapy meets mostly once a week for an hour. There are occasions which individuals need more than one session per week and can be accommodated. If individuals need additional services like medication management or a higher level of care, they will be provided with a referral. New Growth Counseling also has co-occurring substance use and behavioral health IOP. New Growth Counseling will be providing a 16-week program that meets 3 times a week for 3 hours. If clients require additional services, they will also be provided with appropriate referrals. This includes for medication management or higher level of care.
