

SHARE new mexico™

New Mexico Alliance for Children

Eating Smart (ES) is a food distribution and nutritional guidance program for youth in economically disadvantaged situations, which provides weekly take-home food items, healthy snacks, exercise, community gardening, and nutritional guidance lessons through the arts. ES operates primarily through the summer months when food insecurity is at its highest. The ALPHA Effect is an after-school art and literacy program for youth with reading/language disabilities.

Details

Services

Food Arts & Culture Educational Programs Education Disabilities and Health Concerns Health Support/Education/Insurance

Locations

*PO Box 1729
Alto, NM 88312*

Phone: 575-336-1933

Parent Organization

New Mexico Alliance for Children

Our mission is to improve the quality of life for youth in high needs areas of New Mexico through effective arts, literacy, and food distribution programs.

*PO Box 1729
Alto, NM 88312*

Phone: 575-336-1933

EIN: 030490007

<http://www.nmhealthykids.org>