Spoken For

Spoken For is a program that works with women who have been sex trafficked. Spoken For provides a transitional living facility space as a means for emergency and transitional housing. Spoken For provides case management to clients in and out of the TLP facility and works to obtain vital docs, GED tutoring, employment, as well as any living necessities such as food and hygiene. Spoken For specializes in working with women who have been trafficked and at this time, do not work with male clients.
