Parent Organization

New Mexico Faith Coalition for Immigrant Justice

The New Mexico Faith Coalition for Immigrant Justice, founded in 2009, is a multi-faith alliance of individuals and organizations promoting justice for immigrants and families through education, advocacy, and direct service to those in crisis. We promote sensible, comprehensive, humane immigration laws on behalf of those affected by laws that do not reflect the higher values of human dignity, family unity, richness in diversity, and freedom of the pursuit of purpose.

In this mission we seek to:

Educate our communities about immigration issues

Provide compassionate services to immigrant families

Advocate for a humane immigration policy that promotes family unity and respects the inherent dignity of every person.
