

SHARE new mexico™

New Mexico Holocaust Museum & Gellert Center for Education

Education is our focus. A critical component of our mission is educating children about bullying, prejudice, and hate. Our outreach programs encourage empathy for others—to become upstanders, rather than bystanders—and befriend those in their communities who need their support. Our exhibits educate. We include exhibits on the Holocaust, the African American and Native American experiences, and others.

Details

Payment Options: Fee for service

Services

Educational Programs Arts & Culture

Locations

616 Central Avenue SW
Albuquerque, NM 87102

Mailing:

PO Box 1762
Albuquerque, NM 87102

Phone: (505) 247-0606

Hours: Wednesday – Sunday Noon-3:30 p.m. No entry after 3 p.m

Parent Organization

New Mexico Holocaust & Intolerance Museum

We use lessons and personal stories of the Holocaust and other genocides to educate and inspire communities of upstanders.

616 Central Avenue SW
Albuquerque, NM 87102

Mailing:

PO Box 1762
Albuquerque, NM 87103-1762

Phone: (505) 247-0606

Primary Contact: Lyn Berner

Contact Email: lberner@nmholocaustmuseum.org

Type: Nonprofit

EIN:

85-0456900

<http://www.nmholocaustmuseum.org>