New Mexico Humanities Council Grants

The New Mexico Humanities Council accepts applications for funding to conduct high quality humanities programs for public audiences throughout the state. Programs are intended primarily for adults who are not full-time students and for families. They are programs widely advertised and held at times and in locations accessible to the general public. The programs may vary as widely as New Mexico's communities and audiences. These programs bring humanities scholars and the public together. They create a dialogue that enhances the civic and cultural life of the citizens of New Mexico.
