New Mexico Legal Aid Native American Program

New Mexico Legal Aid's Native American Program provides free legal assistance on civil legal matters to low-income Native Americans and victims of violence. Program lawyers expert in Indian law are able to represent members of New Mexico's pueblos and tribes in civil matters in tribal, state and federal courts. Services are provided in a variety of locations including Santa Ana and Zuni, and through telephone- and videoconferencing throughout the state. All services are free.
