New Mexico Now

New Mexico Now (NMN) educates and advances issues that will make New Mexico more just and fair. NMN develops and manages issue education campaigns that educate New Mexico residents about issues important to the success of our state, such as early childhood education, clean energy, taxation and budget policy, and job creation; creates compelling messages on these key issues; and develops new leaders to become vocal spokespeople for these issues to their own communities. NMN's vision is that families in New Mexico can live, work, and play in a state that provides everyone an equal opportunity to succeed in life. This vision is driven by its values of family, fairness, opportunity, and respect.
