

Performances and Arts Education for Families

- 10-12 Season Performances of national touring artists in music, theatre, dance and family entertainment
 - 15-20 Youth Performances for 2,500 youth in Socorro, Magdalena and Alamo-Navajo School Districts
 - 5 Free Performances of chamber music
 - Dance Residencies with the National Dance Institute of NM in Socorro and Magdalena; NMTPAS serves as producer on behalf of these districts.
 - Summer Theatre Residency with Missoula Children's Theater.
 - Free Annual Outreach Events:
 - Community Arts Party, first Saturday in February - ~40 hands-on arts workshops for all ages
 - Fourth of July Celebration, on July 4th - NM music, family entertainment, nonprofit vendors and spectacular fireworks display.
-

Details

Minimum Age: 3

Maximum Age: 90

Restrictions: None

Services

Locations

*Macey Center, One Olive Lane
Socorro, NM 87801*

Phone: 575-835-5688

Parent Organization

New Mexico Tech Performing Arts Series

The New Mexico Tech Performing Arts Series presents a variety of quality, multicultural and affordable performances, arts education and outreach activities, in music, theatre, dance and family entertainment, for the diverse community of Socorro and central New Mexico. NMTPAS seeks to strengthen the local community, improve the quality of life, and support economic development in the region.

*Macey Center, 909 Olive Lane
Socorro, NM 87801*

Mailing:

*Macey Center, 801 Leroy Place
Socorro, NM 87801*

Phone: (575) 835-5688

Tollfree: (575) 835-5688

Fax: (575) 835-5597

Email: pas@nmt.edu

Primary Contact: Ronna Kalish

Contact Email: pas@nmt.edu

Type: Government

EIN: 85-6000411

<http://www.nmtpas.org>