Expanding Your Horizons

Expanding Your Horizons™ (EYH) is licensed by the NM Network of Women in Science and Engineering from the EYH Network. By supporting the Albuquerque EYH Conference, NMNWSE encourages young women to enter the fast -growing high -technology professions. These conferences are designed to provide career information to 5-12th grade students and their parents, teachers, and counselors. The emphasis of the Albuquerque EYH conference is communicating the excitement and challenge that women in STEM fields experience through "hands -on" career workshops and interaction with professional role models who share their experiences and give practical advice.
