

SHARE new mexico™

New Mexico Women's Global Pathways

Programs help girls and women receive the training and support needed to be self-sufficient economically. ESL, micro-enterprise training in beading, sewing and weaving, and community garden.

Details

Contact Email: womensglobalpathways@gmail.com

Services

Material Goods Educational Programs Educational Support Services Employment & Training

Locations

PB&J SE Heights Office

*209 San Pablo SE
Albuquerque, NM 87108*

Phone: (505) 435-5741

Parent Organization

New Mexico Women's Global Pathways (NMWGP)

Our mission is empowering the most marginalized populations of New Mexico including refugees, other immigrant local low income women, girls and their families, to attain self-sufficiency through education, economic development, and strengthened life skills, thereby addressing the social, economical, emotional and educational needs of their children. Our fiscal agent is Immigrant And Refugee Resource Village of Albuquerque (IRRVA).

*209 San Pablo SE
Albuquerque, NM 87108*

Phone: (505) 435-5741

Contact Email: <http://www.irrva.com>

Type: Nonprofit

<http://www.irrva.com/>