

SHARE new mexico™

New Mexico Community Data Collaborative

The New Mexico Community Data Collaborative supports community advocacy Organizations with comprehensive information about socio-demographic conditions, health and education outcomes, early childhood resources and risks, data about food access and hunger, and multiple social issues in our state.

We provide Organizations with both a data commons with over 1000 indicators at the neighborhood level, and on-going capacity building services, for low or no cost

Details

Restrictions: Services to support Organizations

Services

Community Action/Social Advocacy Groups Research Information Services

Locations

Parent Organization

NM Community Data Collaborative

Building Community Capacity to Move Data Into Action. NMCDC Develops and Shares Neighborhood Data with Local Organizations that Promote Community Assessment, Health in All Policies and Participatory Decision Making

*301 West College Ave., Suite 8
Silver City, NM 88061*

Phone: (575) 534-0101

Email: nmcommunitydatacollaborative@gmail.com

Primary Contact: Tom Scharmen

Type: Nonprofit

EIN: 850348445

<http://chi-phi-nmcdc.opendata.arcgis.com/>.